SPECIAL NOTICE

The Board of Selectmen will meet Monday, January 21, 1924, at 8 P. M., in the Selectmen's Room in the Town Hall to open the Town Warrant, and will meet Monday, February 4, 1924 at 8 P. M. to close same.

Per order of the BOARD OF SELECTMEN.
18Jan24 John A. Easton, Assistant Clerk.

FREDERICK W. HILL HAS BEEN SUGGESTED FOR SELECTMAN

This is not too early to be thinking of the town election that comes in March. There are officers who are now serving the town, whose term will expire at that time. Among them is one member on the Board of Selectmen, Mr. Charles H. Higgins, who comes to the close of his service on that board unless induced to run again. He has given efficient service, but whether he will be willing to continue is another matter.

The name of Frederick W. Hill has been suggested to serve as a member of the Board of Selectmen. Mr. Hill was born in Arlington in 1890, son of the late Walter L. and Nannie K. Hill, and grandson of the late John P. Squire. After graduation from the Arlington schools, he entered Harvard University, from which he graduated in 1912. Later he entered the Harvard Law school and became a member of the Boston Bar. In 1917 he entered the army and received a commission of first lieutenant. In 1919 he became connected with the Legal Department of the United Drug Company, of Boston, and in 1921 was elected a director and treasurer of the Dorchester Mutual Fire Insurance Company. He is now general counsel for the Sun Indemnity Company, of New York, an officer of the William A. Muller & Company Corporation, trustee and treasurer of the Arlington Finance Club Trust, and trustee of the Lockeland Real Estate Trust.

He has served on many of the town's most important committees, and has been chairman of the finance committee, a position that requires the knowledge of financial matters and of the law, which Mr. Hill has through study of the law of town government. In 1918, Mr. Hill married Ida F. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Peirce. They have one son and reside at 15 Oxford street, Arlington. Since writing the above, we have been notified by Mr. Higgins, that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself. He has given the town efficient service, which we believe has been appreciated. Mr. Higgins is a busy man and that he has been willing to give of his time, has been a source of deep gratification to those who realize the importance of securing a man of keen judgment. We have heard that Mr. Arthur Birch will also be a candidate for Selectman, as well as Mr. Thomas D. Kennedy.

ARLINGTON ELKS' ANNUAL LADIES' NIGHT ATTENDED BY FOUR HUNDRED

Arlington Lodge of Elks held its second annual Ladies' Night in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, Wednesday evening. Upward of 400 Elks and ladies, sat down to the banquet which took up the early part of the evening. While the members and ladies were assembling, the officers of the lodge held an informal reception in lobby of the hall. Elie's orchestra furnished the music, which was of the best in the hall this season.

Special guests of the evening were, D. D. G. E. R. Frederick T. Strachan; Fred H. Clark, E. R., of Winthrop Lodge; Angus MacDonald, P. E. R., of Winthrop Lodge; Henry Wilson, secretary of Winthrop Lodge and John F. Malley, P. E. R., of Springfield Lodge and representing the grand lodge.

Incidental to the banquet, there was an entertainment program, presented between the courses. It consisted of numbers by Miss Ruth Brewer on the saxophone, trombone, banjo and clarinet, who also sang a group of songs; Miss Alice Brophy, with several vocal numbers; Mme Postina, a dance number, and Daniel Griffin, comedian, who entertained with musical numbers, on instruments of his own construction. The banquet over, Richard L. Powers, chairman of the committee in charge, presented H. Wesley Curtis, exalted ruler of the lodge as toastmaster. Mr. Curtis in a well chosen and short speech, welcomed all. The speakers of the evening were, Frederick T. Strachan, D. D. G. E. R.; Fred H. Clark, E. R., of Winthrop Lodge, and John F. Malley.

As soon as the tables could be removed, dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. As a souvenir of the occasion, each lady present was given a vanity case.

The Hardy Catering Company furnished the banquet and many complimentary words were heard, on the quality and efficiency of the service.

THE FRIENDS OF THE DRAMA FURNISH A DELIGHTFUL EVENING TO MEMBERS AND GUESTS OF WOMAN'S CLUB

Last night (Thursday), was Guest Night for the members of Arlington Woman's Club and their friends and there was assembled in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, a company, that nearly taxed its seating capacity. Mrs. Curtis H. Waterman, the president of the club, was extremely happy in her welcome to the club's guests of the evening, coaching her words with dry humor, that met with a ready response from the audience, who showed their appreciation of her happily turned sentences by their hearty laugh and applause.

The entertainment provided, was a dramatic performance given by the Arlington Society of Friends of the Drama, most of whom are members of the Arlington Woman's Club. The play presented was probably the best of its kind ever seen in this town. It was "Friend Hannah," a story of George the Third of England, which was played so acceptably by Annie Russell, some years ago.

The entire cast gave such a wonderful interpretation of the play, that for the purpose of trying to give them justice for their splendid work, that has entailed many hours of rehearsing to accomplish, we will reserve a review of the play until next week's issue.

Between the acts and previous to the presentation of the play, selections chosen from English music, of the period of the play, was rendered by Miss Olive Doe's trio, which is composed of Miss Olive Ripley Doe, violinist; Mrs. Lucille Quimby English, cellist and Miss Agnes Olson, pianist.

The social committee, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph P. McCann, served refreshments during the reception which followed the play.

FRIENDS OF THE DRAMA MEET JANUARY 24th

The Arlington Society of Friends of the Drama will meet in St. John's Parish house, Thursday, January 24, at 2:30, in the afternoon.

Miss Marie Ware Laughton will speak on outdoor plays and little theatres. Miss Laughton is director of a school of dramatic expression in Boston, and of the summer school for that art at Peterborough, N. H.

Miss Laughton's players will furnish the entertainment for Children's Day, at the Woman's Club.

COMMUNITY CLUB HOLDS GUEST NIGHT, ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND PRIZE AWARDS

The Community Club, of Arlington, had as its guests at the meeting in G. A. R. Hall, Wednesday evening, the members of the Arlington Assembly Club, made up for the most part of the wives of the members of the Community Club. The affair was held in connection with the regular meeting of the club, and also marked the annual election of officers for the Community Club. H. J. Woodbine was elected president; Leslie E. A. Smith, vice-president; Herbert Gillman, Jr., treasurer and Stuart N. Hotelling, secretary.

In connection with this meeting, there was one event that was of interest to all, that of awarding the prizes won in the recent bowling tournament of the club. During the season there were some hot contests in this league, the winners coming through with but a small margin, and not feeling safe until the final string on the closing night of the league. Team D, made up of Captain Woodbine, Hauser, Ware, Day and Fitch, won the team prize and second prize went to Captain Rogers' team, known as Team B, and made up of Gillman, Romaine, Kreem and Thompson. The high team pinfall prize went to Team H, made up of Captain Medeiros, Fowle, Clark, Rupp and Connell. The high single team string was won by Team E, made up of Captain Christenson, Wells, Macomber, Thompson, and West. Cade won the high individual average prize and Greene was second in this event. Ware won the high individual three string prize and Medeiros, the high individual single string.

Following the awarding, and the election of officers, the members enjoyed a fine entertainment, under the direction of Leslie E. A. Smith. The talent was the Blue Bird entertainers, a well known organization. Dancing rounded out the evening. A buffet luncheon was served. Announcement was made at this time of the second half of the bowling league, which starts tomorrow evening, on the Arlington Alleys. There will be six teams in this league instead of eight. The teams have been picked with care and this final round promises to be interesting. The makeup of the teams is as follows:—

Team A—Green, Dalgleish, Kreem, T. Thompson, and Mosher.
Team B—Long, Nichols, Hunter, Porter, and Guttersen.
Team C—Thayer, Rouse, Christenson, Goodman, and Doyle.
Team D—Medeiros, Hauser, Coccia, Noy and Bashe.
Team E—Law, Woodbine, Clark, Day, and West.
Team G—Wells, Fowle, Benway A. G. Thompson, and Connell.

BEN FRANKLIN DAY JANUARY 17th

Ben Franklin's birthday was again observed over the country among journalists and printers on Thursday, January 17th. The International Ben Franklin Society held an elaborate observance at the Waldorf-Astoria, in New York, on that day, including a banquet. The society is planning a fitting memorial of international import for America's first printer-journalist.

MIDDLESEX SPORTSMAN'S ASS'N IS AGAIN CHAMPIONS OF THE NEWTON LEAGUE

For the fourth consecutive season, the bowling team of the Middlesex Sportsman's Association has won the championship of the Newton League. This is what is commonly known as the 'big pin' league. The closing match was watched with keen interest by bowlers from all over the state. The M. S. A. rollers with the Hunnewell team, were tied for first place and these two teams were scheduled to roll the closing match of the season for the championship of the league.

The match was rolled on the M. S. A. Alleys. The Hunnewell Club got away with a bad start and lost the first string by fifty pins. They showed better in the second string, but M. S. A. nosed out by nine pins and this string gave them the championship. The last string was won by the Hunnewell Club by seventy-two pins, but the contest was over after the second string, M. S. A. winning first place. The Hunnewell Club was sure of second place, regardless of the result of the third string.

ARLINGTON LOCALS

—Mr. Willard G. Rolfe is on a business trip to Jacksonville, Florida.

—Mr. A. W. Lombard, chairman of Arlington's Board of Health, has been a busy man these past few days, attending the sixth annual union meeting of the Massachusetts Agricultural Organization, cooperating with the department of agriculture, held in Mechanics and Horticultural Halls, in Worcester, Mass. Mr. Lombard was the manager of the meetings, which extended from the 15th to 18th, inclusive.

—Commander Harwood, of the Arlington Post 39, American Legion, and officers, were the guests of the Cambridge Lodge of Elks, at the reception given by the Elks to the Cambridge Post of the Legion. The feature of the evening, was the presentation of a beautiful silk Legion flag by the Elks to the Legion, and a most stirring speech by Colonel William J. Keville, U. S. Marshall, on the "Americanism of the Service Man in Civil Life."

—The Council of the Girl Scouts will hold one of their enjoyable

"Dansants," on the afternoon of February 22nd, 1924, from 2.30 to 6 o'clock, in the Arlington Town Hall. Tickets may be procured from the committee, Mrs. A. Arthur Hastings, Miss Alice W. Homer and the members of the council. Tickets, are $1 each.

—Mr. Mark S. Dickey, well known in Arlington as an organist, but scarcely heard as pianist, is planning to give a piano recital in the High school hall some evening in the latter part of February. Miss Josephine Malcolm, soprano, will assist. Several pieces and songs of Mr. Dickey's composition will be included in the program.

—Tuesday evening, Mrs. N. J. Lynch, of 61 Orris road, telephoned to Sergeant Belyea, that she had been robbed, while walking on Orris road. Her pocketbook had been snatched from her by a man whom she described as about 20 years old, five feet tall and weighing about 150 pounds. He wore a gray coat. The pocketbook contained $19.

—Saturday, an automobile operated by Thomas H. Carens, was in collision on Mass. avenue, between Bartlett avenue and Jason street, with a big truck of the Standard Oil Company. In the car with Mr. Carens was his 21-month-old son. The child went through the windshield and was so badly cut that it was necessary to take 27 stitches to close the wounds in the child's face. The car was damaged some. The child is improving as well as can be expected.

THE LONG TELEPHONE NOTICES

What wonderful efficiency would be the result, if every one would give 100% service? Why is there this lack? Why is it the attitude of so many, after accepting a responsibility, to endeavor to make some one else do the work? May it not be because we assume more than we are able to do.

There is a saying that it is a smart person who succeeds in making other people work; to dictate instead of serve. Perhaps this is true, but not when the duties which you have accepted, are shifted to another with the expectation that they will do the work intrusted to you, placing the burden as it were, on the shoulders of some one else.

The telephone is a great institution and we could not dispatch our business now-a-days without it, but no doubt every one has seen the time when it has been a source of annoyance, especially in a suburban newspaper office, when the clerk is constantly being called to take long notices (mark you, we say long), over the telephone that should have been written out and sent to the newspaper. How familiar the words are, "I have just remembered that I should have written this notice out and sent it in; would you mind taking it over the phone?" What obliging clerk would refuse.

Most newspapers are willing to give space in their columns for items that are of interest to their readers, as well as announcements, but they should not be expected to take them over the 'phone, which means not only the clerk taking down the message, but of writing it out for the linotype operator to set up.

This procedure necessitates the time of two persons; the one who has accepted the obligation to serve the organization, and the person at the other end of the telephone, who is called upon to take the message, not to mention the telephone operator, who must give you the connection. Three people to do the work delegated to one.

One does not perhaps realize how our town has grown and of the endless demands made upon a newspaper office in the matter of taking over the 'phone, messages of all descriptions.

There was a time when no telephone service made it necessary to transact one's business through the mail or in person. That time has passed, and we would not have it back, but we wish we could impress upon our readers the advantage to all concerned if this matter was given more thought, which no doubt would result in better cooperation. One would not expect any city paper to give this service. But why not? A city office is better equipped for such service.

One morning, say at our office, would convince our readers that this is a busy place, especially on Thursday, (the day before publication), and would realize how much the burden of the clerk could be lightened, if those long messages had only been written out and sent to the newspaper, rather than to tax her patience and nerves in trying to catch the words over, what is often not a clear line. When she answers you so pleasantly and agreeably, don't forget that perhaps she has been answering the 'phone for many others, who have forgotten, until the eleventh hour, to send in that notice, that might easily have been sent early in the week.

TAX-EXEMPT BONDS

Chairman Potter, of the Investment Bankers' Association, stated the case against tax-exempt bonds, the other day, in a clear and irrefutable way, pointing out that they confer a special privilege. Federal taxation is evidently not equitably distributed with incomes from State and local bonds exempt. And it is not a sound plea in avoidance that investors seek refuge in such bonds from Federal taxes because many of the rates are notoriously inequitable; two wrongs do not make a right. The taxpayer should not be criticised for exercising to his advantage a lawful freedom of choice in his investments. But a system that permits taxation to be escaped, to say nothing of the congressional profligacy that encourages it, is manifestly not in accord with sound public policy.

A second important objection, that states and municipalities are encouraged to extravagance by the ease with which their bonds are floated, need not be dwelt upon; it is apparent everywhere at this time. Above all other considerations, of course, taxation should be fairly distributed. The Government itself ought to set an example. If Congress had taken that course, when the last revenue law was framed the issue of tax-exempt bonds would not now be so acute. Congress, moreover, is responsible for a considerable proportion of the tax-exempt bonds now outstanding. All the issues authorized for financing the farm-loan banking system are of that class.

DRIED FRUITS MAKE DELICIOUS BREAKFAST SAUCE

Dried fruits, so often unappetizing in their wooden boxes at the grocery, offer a cheap and really delicious breakfast sauce and a pleasing variety from acid fruits. The dried pear with its luscious amber color and delectable flavor is most satisfying, says Mrs. Harriet J. Haynes, specialist in Home Management of the Massachusetts Agricultural College.

They are not so commonly used as dried peaches, apricots, and prunes, yet where they have been tried both the children and the adults in the family invariably call for them again.

They can be easily prepared for breakfast. Washed, and soaked overnight in enough cold water to cover, they should be stewed for 30 to 50 minutes in the same water in which they were soaked. A bit of lemon rind will bring out the flavor, and sugar as desired may be added a few minutes before taking from the fire. If the pears are to be cooked in a pressure cooker, they need be soaked for only a few minutes beforehand; cook them for about 20 minutes in the cooker.

Dried figs can be prepared as a sauce equally tasty. They should be cooked as prescribed for pears, but sugar need not be added; the juice stewed into a natural syrup. One quart of water to one pound of the dried fruit is the general rule, but water to cover the fruit is usually sufficient.

Fuzz-free dried peaches are now on the market. This brand, though a trifle higher in price than the others, offers the peach freed of its one objectionable feature. To those who prefer dried fruits not in bulk, the market offers a variety in sealed packages. Here one gets clean, selected, carefully wrapped fruit for at a few cents more for the same quality in bulk.

All of these sauces can be easily digested by adults and children, while the pulp of the prune is considered ideal for infants. When grape fruit and orange prices soar, the economical housewife will serve these to her family.

ENROLLMENT BEING TAKEN FOR CITIZENS MILITARY TRAINING CAMPS

Hundreds of inquiries from prospective students have been received at the office of Colonel Blanton Winship, officer in charge of the Citizens' Military Training Camps at headquarters of the First Corps Area. The campaign was not started until January 1st, and the authorities are highly gratified, particularly over the interest shown by former students, who are enthusiastically enrolling for the camps to be held this coming summer.

The Military Training Camps' Association, American Legion, schools, colleges, boards of trade, patriotic organizations and many other agencies are cooperating with Colonel Winship in obtaining the quota for New England.

Representatives of the Military Training Camps' Association for all sections of New England have been appointed and under the direction of Colonel Stackpole are aggressively at work obtaining applications.

The American Legion has already taken steps to participate very actively in the campaign. General Edwards has called a meeting of the Massachusetts post commanders for January 24th, from which date increased impetus to recruiting may be expected. It is anticipated that a very large number of recruits will be received from this source.

There are four courses in the curriculum of the training camps. Boys may attend the first three courses without in any way obligating themselves for service after they have completed the month's encampment. Certain blue graduates of former camps are to be given an opportunity to return this year to assist in the instruction of students. It is expected that, so far as practicable, they will be given the status of officers with the additional privileges which this implies.

There are now more than four thousand graduates of the camps in New England, and their interest and activity augurs well for the success of the camps to be held August 1 to 31st, 1924.

A MOVEMENT TO STEM THE TIDE OF LAWLESSNESS

A definite movement is now under way right here in Boston looking to stem the tide of lawlessness, especially as regards the Eighteenth Amendment. There is to be a big conference on January 21st, beginning at 12.30, with a business men's lunch meeting at the Boston City Club, and at this meeting, plans will be formulated whereby business and professional men can place themselves in line to assist in purging our state of existing conditions.

HUNTING SAFETY WITH BLINDERS ON

The enormous death toll, and the greater accident list which mars the path of the progress of the automobile is giving city fathers and country police authorities a great deal of concern. To meet the situation all sorts of remedies are being tried, the commonest of which is more drastic speed regulations, more police, and a more strict enforcement of the speed limit.

But in many cases it is found that all such additional "safeguards" do not accomplish the result; carelessness wrecks a car just as much when regulated by the police as when no police are about, and lack of skill causes as many accidents when licensed as when outlawed.

Authorities are beginning to believe that as far as the crowded streets of the cities are concerned, two drastic steps must be taken; the flow of traffic must be controlled either by a very elaborate system of one-way streets distance control (as on Fifth Avenue, New York), or a boulevard system which eliminates the deadly crossing; the other step, a real examination and a real standard of proficiency to which a driver must attain before being permitted to drive.

The "driver's examination," in the few places where it exists, is well known to be more or less of a joke. A mere ability to get through a half mile of city traffic without a crash will give, in many places, any child of sixteen a motor driver's license. It is contended that until authorities are willing to make it a sine qua non to a driver's license that the applicant demonstrate, not luck in getting through, but genuine and competent skill in going through traffic easily and sanely, the death toll is likely to continue.

NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL WEAKNESS

Secretary Davis of U. S. Department of Labor says the old apprentice system can never be revived in our country with labor organizations, and divisions of labor into specialties. Too few trades offer young men an opportunity to learn by direct contact.

Our entire educational system is tending toward producing professional classes, with almost no relation to industry and production. Secretary Davis, speaking before the National Society for Vocational Education, said it was a mistake to turn out 90 per cent of the young people equipped only for "white collar" occupations.

As a matter of fact in almost any community, by actual count, only 10 per cent of jobs are the "white collar" class. Mr. Davis, himself a product of the workshop, warns us that our country cannot be kept in lead as industrial nation under this system.

Labor organizations shutting young men out from learning trades, and schools and colleges turning out nine professionals when only one is needed, will not maintain our hold upon the trade of the world.

Our country will have to learn the lesson once more that labor and productive industry are the foundation of prosperity and our boys and girls must be made to realize that it is not undignified to toil with one's hands.

ST. JAMES THEATRE

At the St. James next week the Boston Stock Company will be seen in "The Dover Road," a comedy by A. A. Milne. The play ran for over 300 performances at the Bijou in New York, and was seen at a local theatre, last season, with Charles Cherry in the title role. A skeleton of the plot of "The Dover Road," which the author has clothed in lines of winning charm, has to do with the efforts of an eccentric philanthropist to prevent unhappy marriages. Elopement couples who are discarding lawful wedlock for dubious happiness are his chief concern. To this end he bribes chauffeurs and contrives to have the runaways halted at the gate of his home on the Dover Road. By clever manipulations he gives the couples an overdose of each other's company in the week of enforced visit in his home. By accident and coincidence the men lose their wardrobes, including razors, contract colds in the head and are shorn of romance. Only real affection can endure the tests of the "eccentric Mr. Lattimer," yet through these "experiments" he too wins heart and hand of one fair maid. To Mr. Gilbert, freshened by a week's vacation from his arduous duties as leading man, will fall the role of the eccentric millionaire. He will be capably supported by Miss Bushnell and the popular St. James cast.

COLONIAL THEATRE

Otis Skinner at the Colonial Theatre, Boston, in his new production, "Sancho Panza," has received the unanimous approval of the Boston critics and the public, and the biggest engagement of his career is the result. Every seat in the Colonial was sold for every performance after Monday, of last week, the latter part of the week hundreds were turned away. Of the new play, which is Spanish in setting and based on Cervantes' "Don Quixote de la Mancha," Mr. Parker, of the Transcript said in part: "A feast of line and color, excellent fooling, full-bodied acting *** from beginning to end, everyone seemed to agree it was unusual. Now and then eyes glow to the sheer magnificence of the spectacle." Mr. Skinner's Boston engagement will positively end on Saturday, January 26th, for he must go to Philadelphia, and the play will not be seen anywhere else in New England this season. There is, therefore, only one week more of the present Boston engagement.

MRS. MARY SOPHIA WARE HOLDS A RECEPTION ON HER NINETY-SEVENTH BIRTHDAY

There are few who reach the great age of ninety-seven with such vigor and interest that it enables them to entertain friends in any numbers, but there is such a grand old woman who resides at Arlington Heights. She is Mrs. Mary Sophia (Potter) Ware, who resides with her only daughter, Mrs. George C. Tewksbury, at 45 Claremont avenue.

Mrs. Ware reached her ninety-seventh birthday on Saturday, January 12th, and the notable event was recognized by Mrs. Ware's only granddaughter, Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, who resides at 206 Appleton street, which estate adjoins that of her mother, Mrs. Tewksbury.

Only the long time friends and neighbors of Mrs. Ware were bidden to meet her at the home of Mrs. Mead, from three until five o'clock, but this included a company that filled the attractive music room in the Mead home. Mrs. Ware received informally and made a charming picture in her black silk and Spanish lace, with white lace fichu and carrying an old fashioned bouquet. Mrs. Ware's keen wit and cordial manner, made it hard for one to realize that she was so near to the century mark.

The room where she received, was filled with flowers sent by friends to this splendid woman and there were besides, many other gifts including money, all of which spoke of the love and admiration for Mrs. Ware by her host of friends, who still hold in loving memory her many kindly acts, and who were glad of this privilege of paying their respects to her.

In the dining room there was a lovely appointed table, the decoration being in red, carried out in the flowers and the candles used. Mrs. Joseph C. Holmes presided over the tea urn and Mrs. E. B. Taylor, of New York, the coffee. Mrs. Frank Merrill, of Winchester, was in charge of the dining room and was assisted by Mrs. H. H. Stinson, Mrs. Oscar Schnetzer, Mrs. Harry Boudwell and Miss Sally Casey. There was a lovely decorated birthday cake, which

Mrs. Ware cut and distributed to her guests.

During the hour of the reception, Laura Brown, who is one of the members of the T. T. T. Club, of which Mrs. Mead is the leader, sang two songs, accompanied by Mary Louise Bacon. Miss Bacon later rendered two piano numbers. These musical numbers were much enjoyed, equally so the impromptu piano number by Comrade George H. Averill, a long time resident of the Heights, and friend of Mrs. Ware.

The reception was one of the most delightful occasions held at the Heights for some time, for it brought together long time residents of that section of the town, who are not often gotten together for social intercourse, but no one enjoyed the afternoon or showed less fatigue at its close than did Mrs. Ware, and the wish of all present was, that they might be permitted to celebrate with her, the century mile stone in the life, that has been one of activity and great usefulness.

Mrs. Ware is a native of Calais, Maine, where she was born on January 12, 1827, but she came to this state early in life, and has lived in and about Boston most of her years. She was married to William H. Ware, an old-time Boston druggist, many years ago. He died in 1912. For the past thirty-five years or longer, Mrs. Ware has made her home in Arlington Heights. Mrs. Ware busied herself during the late World conflict by doing much knitting for the soldiers and sailors, through the Arlington branch of the Red Cross. Mrs. Ware's not only knitted mufflers, socks and a sweater, for the comfort of soldiers, but she made bandages, as well. This was not the only war in which she has done war relief work, for she did much knitting during the Civil War. Mrs. Ware has, in addition to the daughter, Mrs. Tewksbury, with whom she lives, a sister, Mrs. Jane Mengel, in Bay City, Michigan.

BOWLING NOTES

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS SECURES FIRST PLACE IN THE TOWN LEAGUE

Arlington Council, K. of C. bowling team maintained its hold on first place in the town league series, Thursday evening, January 10th, dividing the points with Arlington Lodge of Elks, holder of second place in the matches rolled on the Arlington Alleys. Mr. Odenweller is a graduate of Arlington High school. While there he took part in the dramatics given and was a popular member of the class. He is a graduate of Tufts College, class of 1921 and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

The engagement was made known in a delightful manner. Guests bidden to the bridge were each presented with a wedding bell, containing a tiny bride and groom, bearing the message of the engagement.

The luncheon table was exquisitely decorated with softly shaded candles and flowers, and in the center a bride and groom telling the same message as the tinier figures in the wedding bells. Miss Mabel Bayier, of Lynn, poured. Most of the guests present were classmates of Miss Neal.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS OF AMERICA

ST. AGNES' COURT INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

The newly elected officers of St. Agnes' Court, Catholic Daughters of America, were installed at their meeting in G. A. R. Hall, on Monday evening, the installing officer being Miss Anna Callahan of this town, acting district deputy, Miss Mabel E. Spillane, acting monitor. The meeting was attended by a large number, including visitors from other courts in this section. The officers installed were:—

Miss Anna B. Callahan, grand regent; Miss Frances Ahern, vice-grand regent; Miss Alice Morrissey, prophetess; Miss Josephine Dacey, financial secretary; Mrs. Anna L. Callahan, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Rogers, historian; Mrs. Agnes Higgins, monitor; Miss Margaret Dineen, pianist; Miss Mary Kenney, sentinel; Mrs. Ellen Morrissey, Mrs. Angus P. MacDonald and Mrs. Catherine McCarthy, trustees. Miss Callahan appointed her various committees for the coming year.

At the business meeting, which followed the installation, the reports of the various committees were read for the past year.

Many forms of entertainment have been planned for the present year, including a bowling team among the members.

Miss Callahan, who served as grand regent during the past year, was presented with a handsome vase lamp in appreciation of her services. The evening closed with a collation and entertainment.

ARLINGTON BOY SCOUT NOTES

At last there's a sign on the Old Town Hall, letting the world know where the headquarters of the Arlington Council of the Boy Scouts of America are located. This sign, which covers the entire lintel of the front door is black with handsome gilt letters. It is a gift to the council from a number of members and an unmistakable evidence of their interest in the Boy Scouts.

Members of the council are again reminded that the annual meeting to be held in the Old Town Hall, on January 22nd, is going to be well worth attending. There's a lot of interesting business to be settled, but that doesn't tell the whole story. There's going to be some fun, too, after the last "article" has been disposed of, and a feed. Any member who passes up this meeting as "just a routine matter" will be disappointed. Come down and see how the Boy Scout movement has grown during the past year; learn what has been done and what is going to be done during 1924. You'll be astonished and pleased.

Interest in the Fathers' and Sons' Night, which is to be held in Robbins Memorial Hall, on Lincoln's Birthday, February 12th, is growing by leaps and bounds. The boys are looking forward to one of the best entertainments ever offered them, and the "Dads" are marking the date as one that just must be held open. A lot of fun, a bit of scouting, a short talk or two on Lincoln and scouting, and a fine feed with continuous music, such as boys like, promise to make the evening one not easily forgotten. Scores of men who have no boys have sent in their names to the committee asking for the privilege of taking scouts who have no fathers, or whose fathers are away that evening. Everyone of them will be accommodated. One prominent citizen of the town even asked for three! He declared that if taking one boy was good fun, taking three would be three times as much fun and that was what he was looking for.

TOOMEY—CURTIN WEDDING

Miss Dorothy Curtin, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Curtin, of 6 Rice street, Cambridge, but formerly of this town, and Florence Jerome Toomey, son of Mrs. Margaret Toomey, of E. Cambridge, were married Saturday morning, Jan. 5, at St. John's church, Cambridge, by Rev. Fr. Kelley. The bride was accompanied by her sister, Miss Christina Curtin, as maid of honor and by two more sisters, Eileen and Kathleen, as flower girls. The bride's gown was white brocaded silk, and she wore a veil with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet. The bridesmaid wore orchid canton crepe with hat to match, and carried sweet peas. The best man was Cornelius Toomey and the ushers were J. W. McArdle and A. MacIntyre. Mr. and Mrs. Toomey will make their home in Waverley on their return from a wedding trip.

Chats with
Gas Man

The Government recently published figures showing that the American people are getting one of the most important and necessary services in daily life—one that virtually cooks their meals, lights their homes and heats their rooms—at half the cost of your daily smoke!

Gas Service!
Another interesting fact disclosed was that the gas business must invest $5.00 in plants and equipment for each $1.00 of gross revenue on sales of service it may expect in a year's time.

There are some significant truths that should be advertised from one end of the country to the other. They substantiate the fact that few lines of business are conducted on so slow a turnover as the gas business. And the same thing is true of the other public utilities!

MASS MEETING OF FLORENCE CRITTENTON CIRCLES TO BE ADDRESSED BY ITS NATIONAL PRESIDENT

On January 22nd, at 2.30, at the Copley Plaza, Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, M. D. Sc. D., will address a mass meeting of Florence Crittenton Circles. Mrs. Barrett is the National President of the Florence Crittenton Mission, which has homes in sixty-two cities throughout this country and three in foreign lands.

The work of founding homes for girls who had no other place of shelter, was begun by Charles N. Crittenton some forty years ago in New York City. The homes were named Florence Crittenton because it was ning on the Arlington Alleys. High scores were in evidence and Burns, of Team B won the high honors in both single string and three string, rolling one string of 133 and three strings of 343. The matches resulted as follows: Team D won four points from Team F; Team B won three points from Team E and Team A won three points from Team C. The scores:—

Team A—B. Strait 233; West 252; Bentley 262; Werber 308. Team total 1055.
Team C—Malcolm 249; Meikle 225; Munroe 262; Christenson 278. Team total 1017.

A. H. S. BASKETBALL TEAM DEFEATED BY WELLESLEY

The girls' basketball team of the High school met defeat at the hands of Wellesley High on Wednesday afternoon, in the High school gymnasium, in the Greater Boston Interscholastic League series. The win for Wellesley puts them in the place at the top of the league with Arlington. Miss O'Neill, of the Wellesley team was the individual star of the game. From the opening, the Wellesley girls were able to keep ahead, piling up a good lead in the closing period. In the second half, Arlington showed signs of coming back and at one time had but four points to tie, but Wellesley got going again, piling up points that won the game. The summary:—

ARLINGTON GIRL SCOUT NOTES

At the morning session of the Metropolitan Get-together of the Girl Scout Councils, the question for discussion was, "How do you arouse interest in scouting in your community?" A plan for a Good Posture Campaign was presented by Miss Dorothy Dean. In the afternoon, Mrs. James J. Storow spoke of the activities at Cedar Hill. During the week-end of January 18-20, there will be an intensive course in Home Making, with Mrs. Schuyler F. Herron, of the Garland school, in charge.

From January 22-27, January 29-Feb. 1st, and at other future dates, Cedar Hill is open to scout leaders and their friends for rest and recreation.

When the snow-man and Jack Frost cover the ground with good deep snow and freeze up the ponds, Cedar Hill will be the winter playground of all scouts. Snow-shoeing, skiing, coasting and skating will also be in order. The winter carnival is planned for February 21-24th.

During February, an intensive course will be given by the Red Cross nutrition department, which will cover the main principles of good food selection. This is a new plan of Girl Scout Red Cross co-operation on a subject of vital importance to the health of every one.

On February 12th, the Appalachian Mountain Club will have an evening's snow-shoe walk at Cedar Hill.

The Arlington Girl Scout Council was represented by Mrs. Curtis Waterman, Mrs. Frederick A. Sawyer and Miss Anna Waterman at the Metropolitan Get-together.

FOR THE CHILDREN

We are going to give you some little jokes, or conundrums to guess, which you can cut out and paste in a scrap book.

Here is a little story, you can fill in each blank with a color:—

The fields are with snow this morning, the sky is and the sun is as gold. So get ready for school; put some in your boots, then make your hands nice and Pick a geranium from the window box and put it in your button hole, if you are a boy, and if you are a girl put it in the belt of your serge dress. Wear a hair ribbon, or a neck tie. Now for breakfast, eat your and your cereal and toast and drink your glass of cold milk. Here is your lunch box, your school paper, written over with ink. Have you your history lesson? If you meet a friend on your way to school who is with jealousy because of your flower, just spring one of these jokes on him and life will seem less and bleak to him, and he will no longer be and despondent.

Mother had explained to little Jack that the sparks that flashed when his hair was being combed were caused by electricity. She little boy rushed to his grandmother full of interest in the new discovery. "Just think!" he exclaimed, "I have electricity in my hair, grandma, and you have gas in your stomach."

A boy had been presented with a chameleon by a man friend, who later inquired regarding the health of the little pet. The boy replied that the chameleon was dead, and explained his death in this manner, "I put him on a piece of green cloth and the chameleon turned green and then I put him on a piece of blue cloth and he turned blue, then I placed him on a piece of Scotch plaid and he died trying to make good."

Two children, thinking to get the better of their father, placed beside his plate one morning a newspaper exactly one year old, having first carefully smoothed it out that it might appear to be fresh. The father read it quietly for some time, then remarked, "I see that Tom Jones is dead again this year." A poet sent one of his poems to

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

—Mr. and Mrs. Foster Pomeroy and family, of Canada, are the guests of Mrs. Lee Pomeroy.

—The Friday Social Club will meet today, Friday, January 18th, at the home of Mrs. George Clark, Cliff street. The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Clinton Schwab and Mrs. Paul White.

—Cards received by friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clewley, who are touring to California, indicate that on Saturday, January 13th, they were in the State of Missouri, and enjoying the trip.

—The Harmony Circle of the First Methodist Episcopal church of the Ladies' Aid Society, are holding a social evening, preceded by a supper, next Wednesday evening, at the church.

—Mr. Chester Kenneson is traveling in the south for the winter months, filling musical engagements and at the present time is in Richmond, Virginia. He is well known for his ability as a pianist.

—The adjourned meeting of the Park Avenue Congregational church will be held at the church, next Thursday evening, for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year and hear reports on the building committee of the church.

—The missionary meeting of the Heights Baptist church, was held on Tuesday afternoon, January 15th, at the home of Mrs. A. W. Freeman, Paul Revere road. This was the annual meeting and Mrs. S. A. Campbell, of the West End Community House, of Boston, was the speaker. She told of her work with the Syrians.

—The Women's Missionary Guild of the Park Avenue Congregational church will hold its regular meeting, Tuesday, January 22nd, Board meeting at 2 o'clock. At 2.30, the speaker will be, Miss Ona Evans, field secretary of the Women's Home Missionary Society. Her subject, "Here and There in Our Land." Tea will be served.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Birch, for the sixth time became grandparents last Sunday morning, when a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. Freeman Barnes, of Newark, New Jersey. The new arrival is a strong, healthy chap and weighed six and one-half pounds, is doing finely and looking forward to having a scrap with his brother, Richard.

—Mr. Frederick C. Curry, formerly of the Heights, is returning east and will establish business here. At the present time he and his son, Herschell, are making their home with his mother, in Melrose and as soon as is convenient, Mrs. Curry and her other son will come east. They will probably live at the Heights, which will be gratifying to the Currys' many friends in Arlington.

—The Heights Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary opened the season of 1924, with an enjoyable afternoon, January seventh, spent at the home of Mrs. E. R. Brooks, Claremont avenue. Considerable business was disposed of, after which the hostess served tea and the Misses Brooks entertained with musical numbers. The Auxiliary will be entertained on Monday, January twenty-first, by Mrs. Hoyt, at her home, 80 Westminister avenue.

—On Tuesday evening, January 15th, about thirty women of the First Methodist Episcopal church, at the Heights, tendered a surprise party to Mrs. A. F. Reimer, at her new home in Brookline. The party was in honor of her birthday and the ladies who attended, presented Mrs. Reimer with a set of dishes. A most enjoyable evening was spent. Mrs. Reimer was for a long time a resident of Arlington, but recently moved to Brookline.

—At the conclusion of the children's mass in St. James' church last Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. David R. Heffernan, presented Margaret and Georgiana Given with rosary beads, which he had brought from the Holy Land. The presents were in appreciation of the services of these two children toward the Society, for the Propagation of the faith. The pastor explained to the children at the mass that the Given girls had turned in their spare money during the year to the worthy cause and he trusted that their example would be followed by others. The two children are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Given, of 43 Appleton street.

STUDY CLUB HOLDS ITS MID-YEAR MUSICAL

Members and friends of the Arlington Heights Study Club, enjoyed the mid-year musicale on Tuesday afternoon, January 15th, at the Junior High school west. The program was well planned and each artist rendered their part in the program in a manner that gave unalloyed pleasure to all present.

The President, Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, welcomed the guests in her charming manner and Mrs. H. H. Stinson, who was in charge of the afternoon, introduced the artists and read notes on the composers of the selections rendered.

The artists of the afternoon were, Mrs. Stella Marek Cushing, violinist, of Arlington; Miss Pauline Smithfield, contralto, who possesses an extremely beautiful voice, and is a pupil of Witherspoon, of New York, and Miss Frances Moreley, accomplished pianist, of the New England Conservatory of Music, who has been with Lieurance, the composer and interpreter of Indian music.

The platform was artistically decorated with oriental rugs and period furniture. A jardiniere of Jerusalem cherries and a candelabra with candles, harmonized with the general color scheme and added a delightful atmosphere to the occasion. The arrangement of the platform was by Mrs. Herbert Snow, a member of the hospitality committee.

Refreshments of coffee, frappe, mints and cakes were served in charge of the hospitality committee, Mrs. C. E. Johnson, (chairman), Mrs. Claudine, Mrs. Morton, Mrs. G. A. Wood, Mrs. Bezanson and Mrs. Herbert Snow. Mrs. George Russell, chairman of the program committee, served. The table was attractively arranged, the scheme being red and carried out with candles and carnations. The following is the program:—

The music committee of the club is, Mrs. Verne Q. Powell, (chairman), Mrs. Edward Shinn and Mrs. H. H. Stinson.

GET THE FACTS STRAIGHT

"The International Interpreter" of recent date says: "The stability of government chiefly depends on employment in useful industries, and in contentment and well-being of the masses of the people. Idleness and unemployment mean poverty, misery, low grade morale, and breed radicalism, immorality and crime. To deal with unemployment by 'doles' still further lowers morale, and builds up intolerable tax burdens. To stimulate industry and lessen unemployment is the first and obvious mandate in family, community and national life."

The above summary shows necessity for industrial development which maintains payrolls and steady employment. Certainly all political parties can agree on this point.

In the past when the word "tariff" has been mentioned in connection with industry, it has been a red flag to arouse the antagonism of individuals with varying political beliefs. Mystery about the tariff has been encouraged by politicians who, like the magician or "snake doctor" of old, hold a mysterious power over large numbers of people by keeping them in ignorance of tricks or fake practices.

Those nations which have recognized necessity for protecting their industries by reasonable tariffs to enable them to compete with foreign products in home market, have developed most rapidly in raising the standard of living, wages and working conditions for the masses. The United States, which leads the world in high wages and modern conveniences for all the people, is typical of a nation where the home worker has been protected by a tariff that encouraged industrial development.

The International Farm Congress advocates definite and permanent removal of tariff question from politics and urges its consideration from purely economic standpoint.

Since the war, England has been harassed with great unemployment and millions and millions of dollars have been handed out by the government in form of doles. England is advertised as a "free trade" country. It is free trade in this way, industrial workers and basic industries are exposed to competition of manufactured products from countries having a lower wage scale or a higher degree of efficiency than in England. Hence, English industries and English workmen must produce at a starvation price in many instances even to exist.

In 1920, out of a customs revenue of 149,554,000 pounds sterling collected by Great Britain, sugar, tea and tobacco, three necessities of life of English workmen, paid 119,492,562 pounds. Manufactured articles which were shipped in from other countries and competed with the British workman paid a very small tariff.

Great Britain uses the tariff to raise revenue, not to protect industry and workmen, while in United States our tariff has been arranged to encourage industrial development with resulting employment and good wages. In "free trade" Great Britain the average per capita tariff for 1920-21-22 was $13.87. In "high protective tariff" United States, for same period, the average per capita was $2.85.

Why not discuss the tariff from standpoint of industry and labor rather than from the standpoint of partisan politics? Any workman can see that a portion of a fair day's wage will pay his share of tariff levied by this country, while in Great Britain where tariff does not protect industries or workmen, it may take a week's wages of poorly paid employes to pay the per capita tariff of that nation.

*Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Jellison, who were married in Cambridge, Sunday, January 6th, will make their home at 96 Mass. avenue, Arlington.

*The Girls' Friendly of the Church of Our Saviour, met on Monday evening, at the church for business meeting, when the program of the group was discussed for the year.

*A successful food sale, in charge of Mrs. Creelman, chairman of the Industrial committee of the Women's Circle of Trinity church, was held on Thursday, January 17th, at Hall-burton's store.

*Miss Lillian Foss will address the Friday evening meeting of the Trinity Baptist church, January 18, and tell of the work and plans discussed at the Student's Quarennial Conference at Indianapolis, at which she was representative from Boston University.

*Friends are sympathizing with Mrs. H. Warren Foss, of 42 Everett street, in the death of her mother, Mrs. Butler, who died in her 93rd year, in North East Harbor, Maine, on Thursday, January 10th, and was buried, Sunday, January 13th, at Mt. Vernon, Maine.

*In sympathy for Mrs. Elmer Lewis, who recently lost her brother, Mr. A. B. Wright, the Ladies' Guild of the Church of Our Saviour of which Mrs. Lewis is president, attended the services on Friday, in a body, and sent a beautiful floral cross.

*A committee meeting of the members of the Ladies' Guild of the Church of Our Saviour, in charge of the entertainment and dance to be given in Town Hall, on February 26th, will be held on Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. Elmer Lewis, 13 Palmer street.

*On Wednesday evening, at the Trinity Baptist church, Miss Lucy Booker, of India, gave an interesting address to the members and friends of the Women's Circle of the church. On Thursday evening, January 24th, a concert will be given by the Lotus Male Quartet, under the auspices of the Circle. January 30th, will be the date of the Community Social.

*At the annual meeting and election of officers of the Church of Our Saviour, held on Friday, January 4, the same officers were re-elected, with the exception of that of the treasurer, which has been so efficiently filled by Mr. Morine, for the past five years. Because of his resigning, the vacancy was filled by Mr. Richards. His place on the vestry has been accepted by Mr. Hawkes.

*The prize winners at the last meeting of the Internos Club, held January 3rd, at the home of Mrs. Mary Baumeister, Cleveland street, were, Mrs. Russell Richards, first; Mrs. George Bourcy, second; Mrs. Thomas Doane, third. The club was entertained on Thursday afternoon, January 17th, at the home of Mrs. Russell Richards, of Belmont.

*Mrs. Charles Brookings, of Windsor street, entertained the Matinee Auction Bridge Club, on Thursday, January 10th. The prizes of the afternoon were taken by Mrs. Peter Baker, first; Mrs. Marcus Hallenbeck, second; Mrs. Walter K. Thayer, third, and Mrs. Charles Draper, consolation. Tea was served by the hostess, assisted by members.

*Mr. Hawkes, president of the Men's Club of the Church of Our Saviour, and also principal of the Junior High west, gave an interesting talk on the school work of the town, at the meeting of the club held January 10th, at the church. The club met on Thursday evening and held the regular business meeting. The Red and Blues are working hard for points in the contest that closes in May, at which time the losing side will give a banquet to the winners.

*Patrolman Archie Bullock frustrated a break in the store of Fur-bush & Stone, corner of Tufts street and Broadway, on last Friday night. In making his rounds Officer Bullock discovered that the glass in the front door had been broken. On entering the store he thought he heard footsteps, but he made no discovery. He found, however, that the door of the cellar had been forced open. Quickly securing the place, he followed one trail over Tufts street to the avenue, where it ended. Some one bent on cleaning the place out, had evidently made the break, but the timely arrival of the patrolman made short work of their plans.

*Miss Dorothy Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Allen, celebrated her twelfth birthday, on Monday afternoon, January 14th, assisted by thirty-eight boy and girl friends. The house was prettily decorated in pink and green and the table from which refreshments were served carried out the color scheme. Four Jack Horner baskets adorned the table and held the favors later drawn by each guest. A lovely birthday cake marked with her name and the date of the birthday, and also decorated with twelve candles, was cut and each guest enjoyed the hunt for the tiny favors that were hidden therein. The guests entertained Miss Allen with dancing, readings and music, and Miss Allen in turn gave toe dances, in which she is proficient. The birthday gifts bestowed on Miss Allen by her many friends, were numerous and beautiful. The afternoon was enjoyed very much and was an extremely pretty affair.

—Arlington friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wilder, formerly of Arlington, now of Brookline, attended the declamation contest held last Friday evening, in the beautiful new auditorium of the Brookline High school, where 2000 parents gathered to hear declamations from pupils in the different classes, for the purpose of selecting the prize winner. The prize was awarded to the son of the Wilders, Fessenden Wilder, who is a freshman in the school and thirteen years of age. Fessenden gave the speech delivered by President Coolidge before the Senate of Massachusetts, January 7, 1914, and in a voice that was heard all over the auditorium. A strange coincidence was, that just twenty-five years ago an uncle of Fessenden (Philip), won the prize for a like effort.

—The funeral of Archibald Balfour Wright, of New York, who died after a short illness at the home of his mother, Mrs. Harriet M. Wright, 11 Palmer street, was held at that residence, on Friday afternoon, January 11th, at 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. Warren N. Bixby, of the Church of Our Saviour, officiating. The deceased was a resident of New York City, and was, by trade, a master engraver and for twenty years was with the Ringley Brothers Publishing House, of New York. On the 26th of this month, Mr. Wright would have celebrated his forty-seventh birthday. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Gertrude Wright, one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Duffley and a son, Robert Balfour Wright, of Springfield; his mother, Mrs. Harriet M. Wright, Miss Laura Wright and Mrs. Elmer Lewis, sisters, of this town; Mrs. A. K. Stace, a sister, of Worcester, and two brothers, Frederick W. Wright and Dr. Ralph W. Wright. The body was placed in the tomb at Mt. Pleasant cemetery and will later be taken to Mt. Hope cemetery, Roslindale, for burial.

—Mrs. William Blake Wood is entertaining Mrs. William Granger, of Hudson, N. Y., at her residence, 100 Pleasant street.

—Miss Bessie Bartlett, of Jason street, left Tuesday, for St. Petersburg, Florida, where she will spend the remainder of the winter.

—Mr. A. Winslow Trow started Tuesday evening, for his annual visit in Florida. He will be located in Miami, for the next two months, at least.

—Thefts of bicycles are still going on, although the one reported on Monday, was the first of such cases in some time.

—Rev. Joseph J. Leonard will be acting pastor of St. Agnes' church, during the absence of Rev. Mathew J. Flaherty, the pastor, who is in Rome.

—Monday afternoon, three small boys went through the weak ice at Hill's pond, up to their waists. The place is still unsafe, especially for little folks.

—The regular weekly meeting of the Ladies' Sodality, of St. Agnes' church, took place on Tuesday evening, with Rev. Joseph J. Leonard in charge.

—Patrolman Felix Lopez has been off duty this week on account of illness. Patrolman F. Joseph Cahalin was also absent from duty the early part of the week, on account of a bad cold.

—On Sunday many tried skating. Hill's pond was the scene of many wettings, from getting too near the thin edges. The little plot in back of the High school held many and a number found skating on Fowle's pond.

—An alarm from Box 15, on Monday afternoon, brought the fire department to the home of Dr. Joseph S. Carmichael, 221 Mass. avenue. The fire, which was in the cellar of the house, was kept there, although smoke filled the lower and upper apartments. The cause of the fire is at present unknown. The damage was slight, except for the smoke.

—The next dinner of the Arlington Men's Club will be held Monday, January 28th, at the Orthodox Congregational church, on Pleasant street. The speaker of the evening will be, Dean Homer Albers, of the Boston University Law school. He will give his well known talk on, "Less law, more enforcement." Ladies are invited to come in to hear the talk in the evening.

—A daughter, that has been named Natilie, was born, Tuesday morning, January 8th, at Symmes Arlington Hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. George Waterman, of Roxbury. Mrs. Waterman is a niece of Mrs. H. A. Phinney and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Chubbuck (Maude Frost), of Roxbury. Mrs. Waterman's father is a nephew of Mrs. E. C. Turner, of Pleasant street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thurber Adams, of Bartlett avenue, are receiving felicitations on the arrival of a granddaughter. The little stranger was born to the Adams' only daughter, Mrs. Grenville L. Hancock (Frances), at Symmes Arlington Hospital, Saturday evening. The little one has been named Patricia Louise. Mr. and Mrs. Hancock have recently purchased a home at Oakley road, Belmont.

—If you are unfortunate enough not to have a son of Boy Scout age, but would like to attend the Fathers' and Sons' Night, February 12th, and take a scout who has no father or whose father is away that evening, get in touch with Scout Executive Harvey Bacon, at Scout Headquarters (telephone Arlington 0520), and he will tell you how you can do it. Going to a dinner with a Boy Scout is pretty good fun. Try it and see.

—Representatives Blanchard, of Cambridge, Currier, of Arlington, and Cotton, of Lexington, filed jointly last week at the State House a bill directing the Metropolitan district commission to improve Alewife brook south from Mass. avenue to the Lexington branch of the Boston & Maine Railroad. The commission recently replied to a similar order of the city council that they had no funds for this purpose. The sponsors of the bill will ask the legislature for an appropriation of $7,500 for the improvement, which will include grading and parking with grass and footpath and a substantial footbridge near the railroad, which will provide a circuit promenade in the park.

—On one of the social pages of the Boston Herald, of last Sunday, there was a half tone cut of Mrs. Joseph Ward Lee, Jr., who will be better known in Arlington, at least, as Ellen Goulding Percy, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. T. Percy. The photograph from which the cut was made, was taken this winter, while Mrs. Lee was visiting her parents for the Christmas holidays, from her home in South Boston, Virginia. The photograph was used in connection with the announcement of the ball that is to be given this Saturday evening, in Hotel Copley Plaza, by The Dancers' Club, of which Mrs. Lee is a member, and for which she was interested while in Boston, in gathering a college group to attend the ball, who, as the article stated, "would be sure to give zest to the evening's program." The patronesses will include, Mrs. Channing Cox, Mrs. Alvin T. Fuller, Mrs. Frederick W. Cook, Mrs. Guy Currier, Mrs. Roscoe L. Davidson, Mrs. Willard N. Hall, Mrs. Robert D. Hall, Mrs. Henry E. McElwain, Mrs. Joseph C. Otis, Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, Mrs. William Stewart, and Mrs. William L. Terhune. There will be twelve ushers, six college men and six college girls, from Harvard, Radcliffe, Wellesley, and Simmons. Mrs. Frank Senter Jones, of Brookline, one of the efficient officers of the club, will have charge of the entertainment. The proceeds of the affair is to go to the Massachusetts Women's Hospital.

ANNUAL REUNION OF THE 14th BATTERY, MASS. LIGHT ARTILLERY WITH CHIEF OF POLICE URQUHART

Every since he was a small boy, Chief of Police Thomas O. D. Urquhart, has attended the annual reunions of the 14th Battery, Mass. Light Artillery. First with his father, and after his death, he continuing with his father's old comrades. Of late years, Chief Urquhart has been the host of the battery at a dinner, which up to this year has been given in some hotel or club, in Boston. On last Sunday the battery held its 53rd annual reunion, at the slightly home of Chief Urquhart, on Pine Ridge road. The reunion, attended by eight veterans of the old battery, was one that will linger long in the memories of the comrades, for Chief Urquhart left nothing undone to make the day a pleasant one. Special guests at the reunion were two past department commanders of the Mass. G. A. R., Comrades Alfred H. Knowles, and Henry Clark, both also being past commanders of Francis Gould Post 36, G. A. R. of this town.

This battery was termed in the old days as the crack Boston "parrot gun" outfit of the Union Army. There are now living, 15 members. Weather conditions made it possible for the comrades to reach the home of Chief Urquhart with ease doubly so from the fact that the chief had seen to it that the sign posts leading to his home had been marked, giving directions. The slightly home with its large living room, made ample accommodations for the company, for besides the members of the battery, there were other friends bidden to the reunion.

A delicious dinner was served by Mrs. Urquhart, who, with the aid of her husband, prepared the splendid repast.

There was no business transacted at this time, the members and their friends finding enough of a diversion in the radio numbers and in viewing the wonderful view to be had from the Urquhart's piazza, by the aid of the field glasses. Comrades Knowles and Clark each had a few pleasant words to give to the company, which they did in their usual happy manner and the remainder of the time was devoted to reminiscing and at this time two comrades told for the first time, stories that were of interest, especially to the members of the 14th Battery.

One was told by Eugene Sanborn, and related to the incident that returned him to the ranks for not telling who had been the fiddler on a certain night after taps had been sounded and lights were supposed to have been extinguished. Mr. Sanborn had never told the story, for it had concerned also the father of the chief, who was the owner of the fiddle. Mr. Sanborn is now agent of pensions for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, living in Roxbury. The story only proved the loyalty to one another, and to what lengths a soldier will go, to shield a comrade.

Another true story was told by George Rouillard, of Winthrop, one time private in this fighting outfit. Mr. Rouillard was captured by Confederate soldiers at the taking of Fort Steadman, Virginia. In the events which followed, Private Rouillard had his watch, a valued keepsake, taken away from him. He mourned its loss for a long time. Recently he told some of his comrades of having had the watch returned to him, but would not tell just how he got it back. Sunday seemed to be a day for confessions, and he told his former buddies the whole story. It happened that while he was at the national encampment, at Washington, D. C., a few years ago, he met a former Confederate soldier in the corridor of the hotel. In the conversation which followed, some one mentioned about Fort Steadman, Mr. Rouillard stated that he had been taken prisoner there. A former Confederate grasped his arm, drew him aside and the two had a heart to heart talk, the upshot of it being that Mr. Rouillard got his watch back. The former enemy was satisfied as to the other's identity. He then told of taking the watch some fifty years ago. He had taken good care of it and had cherished a hope of some time meeting the rightful owner. He was pleased to present Mr. Rouillard with his watch, which Mr. Rouillard now values more than ever.

Thus it went on, stories of the former days were told and retold, battles fought over again and former buddies brought back in memory pictures to the party.

At the dinner, Eugene Sanborn, who is president of the association, presided. There were about fifty at the party before evening closed, and all had a wonderful time. Those who answered the roll call were:—

Corporal Eugene Sanborn, of West Roxbury, perpetual president of the 14th Battery Association, 78 years old; Lieutenant Albert Walker, of Revere, 89 years old; Corporal William Ricker, of Worcester, 82 years old; Private George Rouillard, of Winthrop, 81 years old; Private George Dupee, of Plainville, 78 years old; Private Wallace Kenney, of Roxbury, 78 years old; Private George Noyes, of Salem, 89 years old, and Private Charles Dugan, of Cambridge, 77 years old.

A. H. S. GIRLS' BASKETBALL
WATERTOWN

27 TO 10
Arlington may well feel proud of its girls' basketball team of the High school, especially Coach Katherine McCarthy, for in its first game of the season, which was played Friday of last week with Watertown, in the Interscholastic League, it won in a score of 27 to 10.

The game was played in the Watertown High gymnasium and was especially gratifying to the girls to have won, owing to the school's defeat last fall in the football contest with Watertown. However, Arlington had no difficulty in winning, the team piling up a score that would have done credit to veterans. This was really the team's first game, although it had played the week previous with the Alumni, in what was considered a practice game. Of the twenty-seven points, Miss Mary Mahoney, left forward, of the team, got twenty-two and Helen Lane, the other five. The points for the other team were made by Miss Tucker, Miss Nobbs and Miss Draper. The Arlington girls made quite a hit in their snappy new uniforms of red and gray, the advantage of having a bright color being shown, when the girls were passing the ball from one position to the other. It was a good start in the league and Arlington should come along with flying colors all through the season. The summary:

TEAM WINS FROM MEDFORD
20 TO 13

The High school basketball team played its first outside game on last Friday afternoon, going over to Medford, where it sprang a big surprise on the Medford High team, by winning out in a score of 20 to 13. Arlington's new style of play, which is a five man defense, kept the Medford boys guessing. This style of play is new in this section, although played almost wholly through New York, where basketball is one of the main indoor sports. The play is that just as soon as the ball is thrown at center and the first play is made, all the five players get back to defend their goal. Then when the ball comes up all five men are in position to play the ball down the floor toward the opponent's goal. Our boys grasped the situation at once.

Medford High has a good team and that Arlington won with its green team, was a surprise to them for they had looked for an easy win. Medford put seven players in the game in an effort to stop Arlington, but to no avail. John Lane was the point maker for Arlington and his work and that of Canty, did much to bring Arlington through. Ed Lane at center position, did good work and Keefe, who played the right forward position opposite John Lane, gave good account of himself. Crosby was kept busy in breaking up plays. Ellis, captain of the Medford team, was the best player for that team and made seven of the thirteen points which Medford scored. The summary:

conveyed to John Doherty, who will make his home there. Of a total assessed value of $5,907, $257 is represented by 4,300 feet of land and $550 by the garage.

Activity on land sales continues in Allen Park, Arlington. The Howe Company has sold eight lots to Thomas E. Wiggins, of Lexington, four lots to Chester H. Milliken, of Cambridge, three lots to J. Dahill, of Arlington; two lots to Thomas F. Fitzgerald, of Arlington and two lots to Arley A. Burgess, of Lexington. All these buyers are builders, who will improve their purchases with modern two-family houses for speculation.

FIRST DINNER DANCE EVER
SPLENDIDLY MANAGED

The thing that was said could not be done has been accomplished, much to the credit of all who had a part in bringing it to pass. This was the dinner dance given in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, on the evening of Saturday, January 12th, under the auspices of the Arlington District Nursing Association, of which Mrs. Roger W. Homer, is president. It was a great undertaking but with an efficient committee made up of Miss Alice W. Homer, chairman, Mrs. George A. Clark and Mrs. Elmer Buckley, who secured the wide experience of William T. Canniff, of the Hardy Catering Company, the problem was an easy one, for Mr. Canniff assumed all the arduous task and discharged his obligation in a manner that did credit to the establishment, of which he is the head.

As is known, the facilities of serving a dinner in Town Hall are meagre, but by planning a menu that did not include but one hot course, this was accomplished through the cooperation of the Arlington Gas Light Company, who installed a gas range for the use of the Association for that evening. There was a spirit of cooperation all along the line, for the Rawson Flower Shop, Mr. Joseph Beasley, proprietor, loaned all the palms used in decorating the stage and the potted begonias that occupied a place on each of the tables. Robert W. Murphy and Rufus Blake each contributed, the former some of the smokes and the latter, candy, which was sold during the serving of the dinner by a group of most attractive and lovely gowned misses.

Tables were placed around the hall, leaving the center for the dancing. One hundred and sixty-one were catered to, tables being set for the number to be accommodated in the parties dining together.

On the platform was seated at tables a party of thirty-four, most of whom were from Arlington, and the ladies made a pleasing picture as many of their gowns were of the flame and the hunter's pink chiffon velvet, so much the vogue this season, also the brilliant blues that are always becoming and handsome. About the hall were tables that accommodated twenty, sixteen, eight, and four of this latter number, however, there were but few.

The dinner was served at 7.30, the half hour previous being devoted to meeting friends and finding the tables assigned to the different groups with one dance before being seated.

The music by Bert Lowe's orchestra, was greatly enjoyed, for while of course there was jazz, it was not so much in evidence, that harmony could be detected. The music must indeed have been infectious, for there were those who participated in the dancing between the courses, who have not been seen indulging in this pastime for many a day, but who evidently just could not remain in their seats while others were apparently enjoying to the full, the splendid music. But this seemed to be the spirit that permeated the entire evening, giving pleasure not only to those who danced the light fantastic, but to those who contented themselves with looking on, in the company of a congenial dinner partner.

The dinner included fruit cocktail, fillet of beef, mashed potato, banana fritters, chicken salad, ice cream, cake and coffee. The dancers seemed loathed to return to the table for the different courses and demanded encores which the leader of the orchestra was most generous in giving. During the serving of the dinner, which was by a corps of colored waiters, those attractive misses, who had the smokes and sweets for sale, flittered from table to table disposing of their wares. They were Margaret Munch, Anna Fellows, Miriam Darling, Helen Hastings, Marion Hilliard and Marjory Lombard.

At the conclusion of the dinner which was about nine o'clock, the floor was cleared of the tables and then dancing occupied the remainder of the evening, many coming to participate who were not at the dinner. There were also quite a number of spectators in the galleries.

Miss Fandel, head nurse of the Association, together with her assistants, Miss Heffernan and Miss Fisher, dressed in their uniforms, sold punch during the evening. There were present many who were glad of this opportunity of meeting the staff of nurses, who are doing such a splendid service in the town, made possible by the people's support of the Association.

It was a big thing to have undertaken, but its success is full compensation for the great amount of work that was necessary to bring to fulfillment, the dream of the chairman of the committee, at least.

Of course it was a handsomely gowned assembly as all Arlington social affairs are, but what is more worthy of comment than anything else, was the personnel of the gathering, which showed that the Association has the backing of men and women in the town, who have its interest at heart.

ARLINGTON LOCALS

—Mr. John F. Stackpole, of 3 Robin Hood road, is at Daytona Beach, Florida. He, with his partner, Mr. D. Arthur Brown, of Brookline, has business interests at Ormond, Florida.

—Miss Winifred Stackpole, of 3 Robin Hood road, has been entertaining Miss Helen Gay, of White Plains, New York. Tuesday evening a dinner bridge was given in her honor.

—Wednesday evening on the Arlington Alleys, the Arlington and Lexington town teams rolled the second match of the series between the two teams. Last week, Arlington won out by 40 pins and on Wednesday evening, by 150 pins.

—Some one passing the First Baptist church on Wednesday evening, saw a reflection on the windows of the church and thought that there was a fire inside. Box 39 was sounded and the firemen responded through the rain.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Johnson, of Albermarle street, who were guests at the Wyman golden wedding anniversary, last week, were also among the couples who had been married over fifty years, the exact years being fifty-two.

—The first lecture on musical appreciation by Miss Grace Gordon Pierce, will be held in the vestry of the Orthodox Congregational church, Friday afternoon, January 25th, at 3 p. m., under the auspices of the Music committee, Mrs. Llewellyn Evans, chairman.

—At the weekly Post 36, G. A. R. whist party, Saturday evening, the following made high scores and were presented with souvenirs: Mrs. M. F. Salisbury, Mrs. John MacLeod, Mrs. Daisy Rich, Mrs. Lila Russell, Mr. C. R. Milliken, Mrs. R. A. Robbins and Mr. R. H. MacLeod.

—Mah Jong parties are now becoming the vogue. On Tuesday evening, Maurice Clancy, entertained a party of friends at his home on Irving street, with this game. There is no end of amusement in this game and there was considerable spirit added to the playing when Mr. Clancy punned twice and Louis Brine chowed three times. Herbert L. Moseley was the official scorer.

—The third annual roll call was held at the Calvary church, last evening, Thursday, January 17th. There was a reception from six to six forty-five in the auditorium followed by a turkey dinner, at which time, Mr. Paul A. Zeigler was the toastmaster and Rev. Leopold A. Nies, D. D., of Somerville, delivered an address. Reports of the various organizations were given. Over two hundred attended.

—Katherine, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hardy, entertained eighteen of her school girl friends on Saturday evening of last week, at her parents' home, on Norfolk road, in honor of her coming into her teens. The evening was spent in playing games, at the conclusion of which a dainty spread was served in the dining room, from a prettily decorated table, the Christmas colors being in evidence. There was of course a birthday cake lighted with candles.

—The Friendly Folks entertained the Bradshaw Missionary Association, both connected with the Orthodox Congregational church, at supper on Tuesday evening, in the vestry of the church. There were about one hundred who partook of a most appetizing repast, served by a committee of twenty ladies, of which Mrs. Marion Henderson, was the chairman. After the supper, Miss Griswald, who has been a missionary in Japan, for twenty years, gave an illustrated talk of her work in the country. The pictures thrown on the screen were many of them colored, and were beautiful.

—In spite of the heavy rain there was a goodly number who attended the entertainment at the High school hall, Wednesday evening, given by the Scottish Musical Comedy Company, under the auspices of the Arlington Teachers' Club. The company has appeared in Arlington on two former occasions, when they gave satisfaction, and their entertainment, which consisted in a two act sketch, entitled, "The Bonnie Brier Bush," was at this time much enjoyed. The personnel of the company includes singers of more than ordinary ability and their singing as well as acting, gave an evening of genuine pleasure.

—"A new plan for World Peace, to be secured without war, devised by an Arlington physician." This was the heading of an article that appeared in the Boston Sunday Post of January 13th. The writer is Dr. Charles A. Dennett, one of our town's leading physicians, who, however, has taken time from his busy professional life, to study this problem, and in last Sunday's Post offered a plan in the Bok Peace Award contest, which is novel. As we are sure there will be those who did not see the article, we shall reprint it in our next week's edition. Look for it. It is worthy your perusal.

—The monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary and Social Union, of the First Baptist church, was held in the chapel, Monday afternoon. At the business meeting, reports were given of the Christmas parties, at the Italian Mission, in Boston, by committees from the society. Two solos by Miss Josephine Malcolm added much to the pleasure of the afternoon. Miss Malcolm was accompanied by Miss Thyra Upton. Miss Lucy Booker, of India, gave a most earnest and interesting talk upon her work there, as a missionary. During the social hour in the church parlors, Mrs. Taft, Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Robinson served refreshments.

—Mrs. C. D. Cobb has returned from a two weeks' trip south, going as far as Louisville, Kentucky. Mrs. Cobb had the pleasure of attending the New Year's reception at the White House, in Washington, and of shaking hands with President and Mrs. Coolidge. New York City also afforded enjoyment to Mrs. Cobb, in her brief stay there.

—Mr. R. M. Lindsay has recently purchased the land on Mass. avenue, corner of Clark street, and is planning development next spring.

—Two of the groups into which the Woman's Club has been divided (twenty groups in all), for the purpose of promoting sociability and helpfulness, not only to the members, but for the interest of the club as well, met Tuesday afternoon, in St. John's Parish house. The captains of the two groups are Mrs. Wilson D. Clark, Jr., and Mrs. Frank V. Noyes. There was a fairly good representation of each group present and the afternoon proved one of real constructive work. Paper flowers, that were used in the presentation of the play, Thursday night, as the attraction for the guests of the Arlington Woman's Club, were cut out at this meeting. Mrs. Benjamin A. Norton presided over the tea table during the social hour. The Parish house has been hired by the club for the use of the captains of the different groups, who will hold meetings there.

—Menotomy Chapter, D. A. R., held its January meeting on Friday, the eleventh, at Riverbank Court, Cambridge, at the invitation of Mrs. R. D. A. Thompson. Mrs. Charles F. L. Morton, the regent, presided. Out of respect to the late Mrs. George Minot Baker, state regent, the Chapter stood while all sang, "Abide With Me." At this meeting the Chapter voted to hold a Colonial party, the date to be announced later. At the close of the business session, the regent turned the afternoon over to Mrs. Thompson, who read a very interesting historical paper. Mrs. Anna Taudien played the violin, with Mrs. Marion Weale as accompanist. Refreshments were served in the dining room of the hotel by the following hostesses, Mrs. R. D. A. Thompson, (chairman), Mrs. Francis S. Smith, Mrs. Harry B. Gilmore, Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. Newell H. Hawes, and Mrs. Horace W. Clark.

ELECTRIC SHOW COMING TO ARLINGTON

The famous Robbins Memorial Town Hall, one of the most beautiful in the country, will be the scene of much electrical activity next week. Fountains, beautiful lights, and music, both orchestral and special piano selections, will help to create a hospitable atmosphere at the Electric Show.

The show will be run under the auspices of Edison Light. The exhibitors will be mostly local electrical dealers and electrical contractors.

This will be the ninth Electric Show, which has been put on since last October. Dedham, Canton, Walpole, Woburn, Waltham, Somerville, Lexington, and East Boston, have all been visited, and over 56,000 people have attended the different shows.

Mr. J. J. Caddigan, of the Edison Company is manager of the Electric Shows. Every household electric appliance will be seen in actual operation, and demonstrators will be on hand to assist.

One of the star features of the show will be the afternoon and evening concerts broadcasted from WTAT, the portable radio broadcasting station of the Edison Company. This station is mounted on a gasoline truck and can be set up for broadcast from any location. At the first Electric Shows only ten watts of power were used, but recently this has been increased to one hundred watts. When the Electric Shows are over, WTAT will have a permanent station at the company's general offices, 39 Boylston street, Boston.

REPORT OF THE PLANNING BOARD

Membership of the Board, for this year, was filled by the election of Herbert M. Dutcher. The recent appointment of a committee to report on zoning is a step forward in one most important department of Town Planning. Favorable action on this will establish suitable districts for the erection of such buildings as would decrease valuations if located along main highways or in residential sections.

A division of planning, in the Metropolitan District Commission, was created by an act of the last legislative session. Its work will largely cover mutual problems of traffic and transportation. While it will consult local planning boards, it will depend on the cooperation of the executive boards of the various cities and towns to carry out its recommendations.

Until such time as a survey of the town may be provided for, recommendations of the local board can only apply to individual improvements. This year has seen the beginning of an appreciation, both by individuals and organizations, that further development should be along well planned, orderly lines, and not at random. This will require a specific plan of the town, and portion of it can be adopted and financed during successive years.

Such a plan will also be necessary to assist in the work already assigned to the Board of Park Commissioners, and in establishing thoroughfares and building lines in conjunction with the work of the above division of planning.

This would seem to be an appropriate time, therefore, to recommend that a suitable appropriation should be made for this purpose, recognizing that the value of working from a definite and comprehensive plan will repay the original cost many times over.

Howard B. S. Prescott,
Jacob Bitzer,
Cyrus E. Dallin,
Herbert M. Dutcher.

LEGION NOTES

The executive committee of Post 39, American Legion, held a snappy session at Post headquarters on the evening of January 14th. Much needed legislation was attended to and we venture to state that 1924 will be a banner year.

Dues for the new year are coming quite rapidly, but there is room for improvement. Leonard C. Tins, our efficient finance officer, stands ready to fill out your membership card. Dues may be paid also to Post officers, but only a temporary receipt will be issued. The finance officer will mail your membership cards to you in this case. Come on, boys, let us keep Leonard busy.

A committee has been appointed to investigate and help in any way possible certain totally disabled service men of Arlington, whom the Government and the Veterans Bureau have intentionally or accidentally overlooked. These men are totally disabled and destitute. Further information can be obtained from Commander Harwood, of Post 39, by any one interested in helping these boys.

Our next meeting, January 22nd, promises to have some surprises for the members. A large turn out is expected. Be sure and save this night and attend.

Our Ladies' Auxiliary is not losing any time in getting down to brass tacks. They are already busy planning some affairs that do them credit. More will be given out later about this.

The trustees of our building fund hold a meeting this month. We are given to understand that their report will be published, so our good friends of Arlington can see how the money they so graciously gave us, is being taken care of. Donations to help the good cause may be made at any time.

Our well-known comrades "Tim" Buckley and "Bob" Wallace are in for a busy time as chairman and secretary, respectively, of the executive committee.

The Arlington Board of Trade has asked the Legion to provide a speaker on the subject of "The Adjusted Compensation Bill," for their meeting on February 5, 1924. Steps have been taken to obtain a speaker as requested and an interesting and correct interpretation of this bill will be presented.

The ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary of Arlington Post, No. 39, are glad to announce that afternoon whist parties will be held at Legion headquarters, every two weeks, beginning January 24th. These parties will be held regularly until further notice.

ANNUAL MEETING OF ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The annual meeting of St. John's Episcopal church was held at the Parish House, Monday evening, January 14th, with the rector, Rev. Charles Taber Hall, presiding. Reports were received from the rector and parish treasurer and from the officers of the Church school, the Woman's Guild, the Woman's Auxiliary, the Girls' Friendly Society, the G. F. S. Candidates, the Altar Guild and the Arlington Heights Branch of the Auxiliary. All bills were reported paid with no indebtedness of any kind. During the year final payments have been made on the mortgages on the Parish House property on Pleasant street, and the rectory on Court street.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Senior Warden, Frank H. Hubbard; Junior Warden, William D. Elwell; Treasurer, Arthur O. Yeames; Clerk, Ray E. Mauger; Vestrymen for three years, Charles H. Hoxie, Edgar S. Rowse, John L. Wheatley; for one year (to fill unexpired term), Frank A. Woodhead; for two years (to fill unexpired term), Charles A. Rideout; Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, Charles S. Somerby, Robert O. Burns and Frank A. Woodhead; Delegates to the Archdiocese of Lowell, Charles R. Beattie, Ray E. Mauger and Arthur E. Norton.

SEARCHLIGHT CLUB ADDRESSED BY DR. JOHN H. RANDALL

Dr. John Herman Randall, in speaking on, "Truth versus Lies of Today," at the last regular meeting of the Searchlight Club, said that the very real difficulties in gaining the truth about anything is first, "mental inertia," indulging in man's favorite occupation of day-dreaming; second, the vast amount of "misconception," which we have all inherited from childhood; the ingrained tendency in human nature, "to believe what is pleasant to us," to believe what we want to believe; and finally that the greatest and well-nigh insuperable obstacle in the pathway to truth is the ignorant and wicked "prejudices" to which we all are prone.

In summoning up his talk, Dr. Randall said that in an age like ours that is honey-combed with lies, the tissue of whose thinking on nearly every subject is made up of falsehoods; when deliberately fabricated propaganda on every vital problem is blinding the minds and poisoning the hearts of multitudes of people; when so much of our life, in politics and religion, in business and society, is made up of pure "bunk"—an expressive if not an elegant word,—it is no wonder that confusion abounds on every hand, that the hands of justice are tied, that peace lingers in the dim distance and that all paths to progress seem barred. For it is the truth, in every relation of life, that can alone make men free, and until men and nations are willing to search for the truth until they find it, and then determine to translate it, resolutely and at all costs, into its living concrete terms no sure way to progress can be found.

Man is not a truth loving animal and it is only the few that meet in little groups, like the Searchlight Club, to search out the truth, that
